Dedication

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends
can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the Earth and everything
that's in it,
And you'll be like Nelson Abernathy, son!

— Rudyard Kipling
(Changes made in last line.)

In Memoriam

Mrya Dawn Varner

1956 - 1974

In stature she was a mite, but in school spirit, desire for knowledge, and personality, she stood very tall. In her last year of life she suffered intensely but she never lost her smile and the indomitable hope that soon she would be back with us. She loved her school and classmates very much as evidence by the words that were always on her lips, "I can hardly wait to get back to school." We loved you too, Myra, and our lives are far richer for having shared your friendship.
